TWO FIRE VICTIMS

Smothered by Smoke in a Chicago Hotel This Morning.

FOUR OTHERS BADLY AND ONE FATALLY INJURED.

Narrow Escape From a Death-Trap—Twelve Chinese Smugglers Drowned—Died From Exposure—Railway Fireman Crushed in a Wreck—Brakeman Under the Wheels—Casualty Record.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 4.—At 3 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the all-night restaurant under the Waverly Hotel, 202 Clark street. The hotel at once filled with smoke, and the occupants rushed into the hallways and attempted to reach the fire exits. As a result of the fire two persons were killed, one fatally hurt and four others quite badly injured. The killed are: JOHN MEREDITH, 65 years old, residence unknown, suffocated.

PAUL WOOD, 14 years old, son of Samuel P. Wood, suffocated. The injured are: MRS. S. P. WOOD, right leg broken and injured internally; will require a cast and bandage. MRS. J. E. SMITH, badly bruised and injured; will recover. MRS. EDWARD C. DWYER, overcome by fright and smoke.

MRS. J. E. CLAY, overcome by heat.

MRS. J. E. SMITH, overcome by smoke.

N. FRANK, slightly injured about the shoulders by falling.

The fire, although small and kept confined to the restaurant, was very exciting, all the guests usually incident to a hotel fire being witnessed. The clerk, after strenuous efforts, succeeded in rousing all the guests, the two who were suffocated being found at some distance from the building by the firemen and hotel employees after being half suffocated.

The death of little Paul Wood and the partial suffocation of his parents was one of the most heartrending scenes ever witnessed.

The Wood family is composed of father, mother, two sons and one daughter. The eldest son was in the office on the second floor when the fire broke out. He at once ran to the top floor and awakened his parents, brother and sister. They descended in the elevator. As Mrs. Wood was stepping out the elevator man started the elevator up again and the unfortunate woman was caught between it and the door, her right leg being badly crushed. Before Paul Wood could be removed from the elevator he was dead.

John Meredith was on the top floor and when awakened became bewildered. He lost his way when attempting to go down stairs, and when found was nearly dead. He died while being carried from the building. The loss to the restaurant is small, being less than $1,000.

CRUSHED IN A COLLISION.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 4.—There was a singular collision between two engines in the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy yards Sunday morning. A switch engine, with Engineer J. F. McKenna and Charles W. L. Van Wiermer, was backing out with a train of cars. Backing westward, pushing another, was a regular engine of large size. The trains were on different tracks, but the two engines, when backing, crossed the tracks. Fireman Van Wiermer was crushed to death, and Engineer McKenna was badly injured.

SMUGGLERS DROWNED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Ten Chinese and two women, who started in a smuggling sloop to cross the Straits to Port Townsend, are without doubt drowned. They have been out a week and two chains of a boat were picked up at Esquimaux Harbor. Among the party were four of the most notorious smugglers on the coast, while the other eight were their victims.

OFFICIALS SCORED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., in an address at Madison Hall yesterday turned his attention to the New York Central Railroad officials, whom he scored because of the recent disaster. "It is time," he stated, "that the Government should clearly who is responsible for life on the public highways."

FATAL RAILWRECK.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 4.—A freight train was wrecked on the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad at Querino Canyon yesterday morning. Neil Evans, the engineer, being killed and Simon George and Robert Simon, two men and brakeman, dangerously injured. The engine and the first two cars of the train went over into the canyon.

CASUALTY REPEATED.

Mrs. Heady, 37, living near Wayneville, Ill., gave her baby morphine to quiet it and the little one died before she could get to the hospital.

Columbus Ross, aged 12, was accidentally shot and killed at Kingston, Tex., yesterday by his 7-year-old brother.

Frank Baker died at Jacksonville, Ill., yesterday from the effects of corrosive sublimated administered by mistake several weeks ago.

Frank Hillis, a brakeman on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, was killed by a train in the yards at Greenfield, Ind., last Friday. The saloon building was owned by C. F. Harshman, and was insured for $2,000. Austin's stock was also insured.

SPARKS.

D. F. Richardson's store at Youngport, Tex., was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss was $6,000 and insurance $4,000.

The Grocery Home at Greenville, Tenn., was destroyed by fire yesterday morning and a printer named Foster lost his life in the fire.

IS BALLOU GUILTY?

The Startling Statement Said to Have Been Made by Dr. Graves.

IMPLICATING HIS PART IN THE MURDER OF MRS. BARNABY.

He Denies the Story Now and Claims the Words Were Never Uttered—Peculiar Action of Col. Ballou in Leaving Denver Before the Verdict Was Reached Saturday Night.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 4.—Abounding in sensational incidents in every stage of its history, the Graves-Barnaby case reached its most startling phase on Saturday night last by the utterance attributed to Dr. T. Thatcher Graves that "Ballou is as guilty as I am."

After the jury had rendered its verdict that the defendant was guilty of murder in the first degree (which means death on the gallows for Dr. Graves), the prisoner was taken to the jail for talk or consultation with friends and lawyers. Two deputy sheriffs, Wilson and Means, accompanied him to the jail, as he was about to enter his cell, these officers may be declared to them that Col. Ballou was as deeply implicated in the murder of Mrs. Barnaby as he was, and was really the instigator of the crime.

This intelligence that Graves had made this important statement was immediately conveyed to Prosecuting Attorney Stevens, who in company with John Conrad, Mrs. Barnaby's son-in-law, and the chief witness against Graves, called at the jail at 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

Deputy Sheriff Wilson was with them. Wilson went into the jail and told Dr. Graves if he would be willing to make a statement to Judge Rising and to Mr. Stevens, Dr. Graves said, "No, I will see my attorney in the morning."

Early in the morning the information of Graves' alleged confession was conveyed to Judge Furman, his chief counsel, who immediately proceeded to the jail and said to the prisoner: "Doctor, you have been convicted, and I don't think Judge Rising will grant you a new trial. I attribute this conviction to the bench. He prejudiced the jury against you. The Supreme Court may, possibly, reverse the decision. I wish you to give me the truth. If there is anything you are concealing, come out and tell it. You are a poor man, and unlimited means are being used against you, and by all means you must tell the truth. There is no use keeping up this fight. If you are guilty you ought not to go to the gallows with a lie upon your lips."

Dr. Graves, with much effort, then said: "I can not truthfully alter my statement. I have told you the truth. I never told either of the deputies a single word. Deputy Wilson suggested to me that Ballou was to blame than myself and that if I were to confess, would be to tell the truth. I said to myself, 'I am not going to do this. I am not going to go to the gallows with a lie upon my lips.'"

Dr. Graves, with much effort, then said: "I can not truthfully alter my statement. I have told you the truth. I never told either of the deputies a single word. Deputy Wilson suggested to me that Ballou was to blame than myself and that if I were to confess, would be to tell the truth. I said to myself, 'I am not going to do this. I am not going to go to the gallows with a lie upon my lips.'"

"AN INVALUABLE MEDICINE."

DEAR MADAM: You speak of using my recent letter as a testimonial—

you are perfectly welcome to do so—would that I could influence all suffering women to give your compound a fair trial. I must say to you that it is an invaluable medicine, and if used according to directions, will prove a certain cure for the diseases it is recommended for. It has been very, very beneficial to myself and daughter.

Sincerely Yours, Mrs. S. BLAIR, cor. Church and Park Sts., Roanoke City, Va.

FIRE ON ARENAL STREET.

A blaze this morning which caused considerable excitement.

A fire supposed to have been started by hot ashes totally destroyed seven woodsheds, a stable and burned three horses to death this morning at 8 o'clock on Twenty-ninth and Arsenal street. The fire was discovered after two sheds were burning brightly. An alarm was turned in from box 62 but before the apparatus arrived the fire had swept along the alley until it seemed as though all the dwellings on the block were doomed. There was great excitement among the families during the fire and several began packing up preparatory to moving out at short notice. The total loss will amount to about $2,500. The loss to George Weaver of 200 and 204 Arsenal street will be $200. Martin Leback of 206 Arsenal street lost three horses, his stable and shed, all valued at $1,600. Mrs. J. Stall of 200 Arsenal street lost a lot of chickens and her shed, all valued at $150. John O. Abel of 202 Arsenal street lost his shed and winter supply of wood and coal, all valued at $200. The shed of Anton Pinner at 200 Nebraska avenue was damaged to the extent of $150, and August Kinner of 211 Nebraska avenue will lose $200 in the destruction of his stable and shed.

Shooting Over a Game of Cards.
Wm. Ellis and Sid Lucas, both colored, engaged in a game of cards in Rossi's saloon last evening. It was agreed the loser of each game should pay for the drinks. After a few games the drink took effect and the men became quarrelsome. Lucas lost the sixth game and refused to pay for it. Ellis struck Lucas in the face, whereupon the latter picked up a chair and tried to strike Ellis. After a few blows Ellis was removed to the City Dispensary and then to his home, 221 Gay street, but his condition was so serious that at the advice of his physician, he was removed to the City Dispensary. He is not yet out of danger, but his condition is not so serious as it was at first. He is not yet out of danger, but his condition is not so serious as it was at first.

"Convenience."
"Yes, I find the Chemical National Bank the most convenient place to keep my bank account, its location being so central."

Took the Wrong Medicine.
R. H. Beckley, the manager of the Grand Cafe on Washington avenue, near Broadway, made a bad mistake in taking some medicine last Saturday evening, which nearly cost him his life. He had an abscess in his ear, for which he was taking medicine internally and also using a wash. After going to his room, 21 Walnut street, he took a large dose of medicine and went to bed. His landlady heard his groans and summoned medical assistance. When the doctors arrived the man was unconscious, but after working all night they managed to pull him out of danger. His friends have been trying to keep the matter quiet lest people should suspect deceit.

Accidentally Shot.
At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while John Fieldman, 17 years of age, was crossing Second and Market streets he was accidentally shot in the back with a 22-caliber revolver by Lewis Riedell. He was removed to a private residence at 1115 South seventh street, where the wound was dressed by Dr. Thomas of 1215 South seventh street, who pronounced it serious but not necessarily fatal. Riedell was arrested at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Detective Jones, and will be charged with discharging a firearm within the city.

COUGH FOLLOWING GRIP.
Is quickly cured by very small doses of Piso's Cure for Consumption. After every spasm of coughing, even if occurring every few minutes, take five or ten drops, just enough to moisten the throat.

Lost in St. Louis.
Andy Cooper, a resident of Faynes Pique, Mo., called at police headquarters this morning and asked the officers to find his hotel. He said he came to St. Louis yesterday and registered at some hotel, the name of which he could not learn, and he went out for a short walk. He went further away than he intended to and could not find his hotel when he returned to the place from which he had started. On a chair in the hotel he left a new overcoat, and though he went into every hotel he could find in the city for three hours he could not find his overcoat.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

A Drunken Man's Revenge.
Thomas Tymon, a laborer, went into Martin Henry's saloon, on the northwest corner of Sixth and Market streets, yesterday afternoon and called for a drink. The bartender refused to serve him, because, as he said, Tymon was drunk. Tymon then took offense at this and going outside drew a brick through a pane of glass, causing about $50 damage. He was arrested and will be made to answer to a charge of malicious destruction of property.

BRECHMAN'S PILLS are faithful friends.
Walter Parr, a handsome, black-eyed young man about 23 years old, was arrested and locked up last night by Detective Joe Jackson of the Fourth District. He is well known in North St. Louis, where he has resided for several years. He is charged with having seduced Miss Lillian Horn, a handsome girl 17 years old, who resides in the neighborhood of the case avenue.

Rumor That Washington Park, Chicago, Will Abandon Racing.

SOME OF THE STOCKHOLDERS SAID TO FAVOR CLOSING THE COURSE.

The Agitation Thought to Be a Ruse to Prevent Adverse Legislation—Sullivan Says Slavin Does Not Want to Meet Him—Jim Mutrie and His New League—General Sporting News.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 4.—Some of the stockholders of the Washington Park Club want to abandon the racing feature on account of the character of the crowd that attracts. Secretary Brewster and a minority of the stockholders, however, are working in the interest of racing for another year at least. Those on the outside laugh at the idea of the club dropping its racing feature. "The Washington Park races are a gold mine. There never was such a money-making investment in the West. You can put it down as a sure thing that the races will go on. It's only a bluff on the part of the directors to head off adverse legislation by the City Council."

THE RING.
PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 4.—John L. Sullivan and Duncan Harrison closed their engagement here last night. In an interview Sullivan said: "I have taken a pledge to quit racing for one year. I am very anxious to meet Slavin but it is apparent that he is trying to evade an issue. My tour with Harrison closes the 10th week in June and I would like a match to take place about the middle of September before any responsible club in the United States offering the largest purse. I give the preference, however, to New Orleans. Charley Johnson, of Brooklyn, has full authority to make the match."

JACKSON MEANS FIGHT.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 3.—Peter Jackson left for the East last night, accompanied by Con Rippon. Jackson received no information that his match is off with Slavin and thinks that before he leaves New York for England, whatever trouble now existing between Slavin and his English backer will be patched up. "I have been in New York," said Jackson, "and have a talk with him. You may say to the referees that now that already been posted and the fact duly acknowledged by the National Sporting Club."

POULISTIC POINTERS.
The Occident Athletic Club of San Francisco has offered taking up a purse of $1,000 for a contest between Andy Bowen and Billy Jackson. The latter is a local favorite and has a reputation on the coast.

Big Joe McLaughlin was out Saturday night celebrating his recent victory over Charlie in San Francisco and was knocked down by Young Mitchell, with whom he had trouble.

BASE BALL.
NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Hustling Jim Mutrie has found backing for an Eastern Association club in this city. The man behind him are the proprietors of the "Eldorado," situated on Jersey palisades, opposite Fifth street. Manager Fred Walker of the company, said to a reporter to-day: "Yes, we are willing to give Mr. Mutrie all the money he wants. We do not want any money from the New York Club, but what we do want is its sanction. We would of course be on Sunday games for our main income, but we would like to hold grounds for week-day games, scheduled when the home club is in some other city. We will make application for an Eastern Association franchise as soon as we get permission from the New York Club."

Mr. Spaulding of the New Yorks, was non-committal on the subject when approached by a reporter to-day.

KELLY WANTS TO GO TO NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Mike Kelly is in town. He told a reporter he was anxious to play in New York. "In Boston," he said, "they are roasting me, and I'm afraid if I stay there I'll have to play on the bench. I'd like to go in and split up with Boyle in the catching for the Giants. Buck Ewing, I think, ought to be made a regular catcher. Connor is to play in Philadelphia."

Wagner of the New Yorks, is anxious to make a solo provision for the minor leagues. The Central Association, he says, will hold a meeting at Chicago next Thursday. The fair-haired youth who conducts the sporting columns of the Globe-Democrat has at last discovered that the East St. Louisockey Club is to have a race track. Of course he was a month or two behind the Post-Dispatch in learning the fact, but did as well as could be expected of him.

WILLIAM A. HARGADINE DEAD.

Sudden Death of a Well-Known Citizen of St. Louis.

William A. Hargadine, one of the foremost citizens of St. Louis, died at an early hour this morning of apoplexy at his residence, No. 2787 Locust street. For two or three days Mr. Hargadine had been suffering from a severe cold, but had practically recovered from it yesterday. Last evening he was in his customary good spirits and went to bed about 11 o'clock without complaining of feeling unwell. About 4:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Hargadine was aroused by her husband's labored breathing, and suspecting that he was ill, sent for some members of the family as were near by. By the time they arrived Mr. Hargadine was dead. He did not speak to any one in his last moments and seemed entirely unconscious of all that was going on around him. His physicians state that his death was due entirely to apoplexy and was in no way provoked by the mild symptoms of grip which annoyed him for a day or two.

Mr. Hargadine would have been 70 years of age on next Wednesday. He was a native of New York and was born in 1822, on the Alexander farm near Frederick, Md., where his parents resided. His education was such as is usually given to boys raised on a farm and his early life was unmarked by anything save hard work and industry. In 1841 he came to St. Louis and worked as a store clerk and succeeded in getting a position in the wholesale dry goods house of Crow, McCreary & Co., which was then down in the neighborhood of Main street. He worked as a clerk and salesman until 1848, when he was admitted to partnership in the establishment. From that time forward he was in the forefront of the establishment and did more to make it what it is to-day than any other single individual connected with it. He was a man of great energy and was known as the Harvard-McClintock Dry Goods Co. He was a man of great energy and was known as the Harvard-McClintock Dry Goods Co.

For the Cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bronchitis, Leucitis, Debility, Wasting Diseases and Scrofulous Humors.

Almost as palatable as cream. It can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons and children, who, after using it, are very fond of it. It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and appetite, builds up the nervous system, restores energy to mind and body, creates new, rich and pure blood, in fact, rejuvenates the whole system.

This preparation is far superior to all other preparations of Cod Liver Oil. It has many imitations, but none so good. The results following its use are: It cures Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Bronchitis, Leucitis, Debility, Wasting Diseases and Scrofulous Humors.
